(b) A sentence imposed in terms of paragraph (a) may not be suspended as contemplated in section 297(4) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977.

CLAUSE 20

1. On page 14, from line 40, to omit clause 20, and to substitute:

20. (1) A complainant (hereinafter referred to as the applicant) who lays a charge with the South African Police Service that an offence contemplated in section 14, 15 or 16 has allegedly been committed against them, may on an ex parte basis in the prescribed form and manner, apply to a magistrate's court for an order pending the finalisation of the criminal proceedings to—

- (a) prohibit any person to disclose or further disclose the data message which relates to the charge; or
- (b) order an electronic communications service provider whose electronic communications service is used to host or disclose the data message which relates to the charge to remove or disable access to the data message.

(2) The court must as soon as it reasonably possible consider an application submitted to it in terms of subsection (1) and may, for that purpose, consider any additional evidence it deems fit, including oral evidence or evidence by affidavit, which must form part of the record of the proceedings.

(3) If the court is satisfied that there is—

- (a) prima facie evidence that an offence referred to in section 14, 15 or 16, has allegedly been committed against the applicant; and
- (b) reasonable grounds to believe that a person referred to in subsection (1)(a) disclosed the data message in question; or
- (c) reasonable grounds to believe that the electronic communications service of the electronic communications service provider is used to host or was or is used to disclose the data message in question, the court may, subject to such conditions as the court may deem fit, issue the order referred to in subsection (1), in the prescribed form.

(4) The order, referred to in subsection (3), must be served on the person referred to in subsection (1)(a) or electronic communications service provider referred to in subsection (1)(b), in the prescribed manner: Provided, that if the court is satisfied that the order cannot be served in the prescribed manner, the court may make an order allowing service to be effected in the form or manner specified in that order.

(5) An order referred to in subsection (3) is of force and effect from the time it is issued by the court and the existence thereof has been brought to the attention of the person referred to in subsection (1)(a) or electronic communications service provider referred to in subsection (1)(b).

(6) A person referred to in subsection (1)(a), other than the person who is accused of having committed the offence in question, or an electronic communications service provider referred to in subsection (1)(b), may, within 14 days after the order has been served on them in terms of subsection (4), or within such further period as the court may allow, upon notice to the magistrate's court concerned, in the prescribed form and manner, apply to the court for the setting aside or amendment of the order referred to in subsection (3).

(7) (a) The court must as soon as reasonably possible consider an application submitted to it in terms of subsection (6) and may for that purpose, consider such additional evidence as it deems fit, including oral evidence or evidence by affidavit, which must form part of the record of the proceedings.

(b) The court may if good cause is shown for the variation or setting aside of the protection order, issue an order to this effect.

(8) The court may, for purposes of subsection (2) and (7), in the prescribed form and manner cause to be subpoenaed any person as a witness at those proceedings or to provide any book, document or object, if the evidence of that person or book, document or object appears to the court essential to the just decision of the case.

(9) Any person referred to in subsection (1)(a) or an electronic communications service provider, referred to in subsection (1)(b), that fails to comply with an order referred to in subsection (3), or any variations thereof, is guilty of an offence.

(10) Any person who is subpoenaed in terms of subsection (8) to attend proceedings and who fails to—

- (a) attend or to remain in attendance;
- (b) appear at the place and on the date and at the time to which the proceedings in question may be adjourned;
- (c) remain in attendance at those proceedings as so adjourned; or
- (d) produce any book, document, or object specified in the subpoena,

is guilty of an offence.

(11) The provisions in respect of appeal and review as provided for in the Magistrates' Court Act, 1944, and the Superior Courts Act, 2013, apply to proceedings in terms of this section.

(12) For purposes of this section and sections 21 and 22 “to host a data message” means to store the data message on an electronic communications network that is used to provide an electronic communications service, where it can be viewed, copied or downloaded.

1. On page 15, from line 33, to omit clause 21, and to substitute:

21. (1) If an application for a protection order is made in terms of section 20(1) and the court is satisfied in terms of section 20(3) that a protection order must be issued and the particulars of the person referred to in section 20(1)(a) who disclose the data message or the electronic communications service provider, referred to in section 20(1)(b), whose service is used to host or was or is used to disclose the data message is not known, the court may—

- (a) adjourn the proceedings to any time and date on the terms and conditions which the court deems appropriate; and
- (b) issue a direction in the prescribed form, directing an electronic communications service provider, that is believed to be able to furnish such particulars, to furnish the court in the prescribed manner by means of an affidavit in the prescribed form with—
 - (i) the electronic communications identity number from where the data message originated;
 - (ii) the name, surname, identity number and address of the person to whom the electronic communications identity number has been assigned;
 - (iii) any information which indicates that the data message was or was not sent from the electronic communications identity number of the person to the electronic communications identity number of the complainant;
 - (iv) any information that is available to an electronic communications service provider that may be of assistance to the court to identify the person referred to in section 20(1)(a) or the electronic service provider referred to in section 20(1)(b), which provides a service to that person;
 - (v) any information that is available to an electronic communications service provider which—
 - (aa) confirms whether or not its electronic communications service is used to host or was or is used to disclose the data message in question; or

- (bb) may be of assistance to the court to identify the electronic communications service provider whose service is used to host or was or is used to disclose the data message in question; or
- (vi) an assessment whether or not the electronic communications service provider is in a position to—
 - (aa) remove the data message or a link to the data message; or
 - (bb) disable access to such data message or a link to such data message.

(2) If the court issues a direction in terms of subsection (1)(b) the court must direct that the direction be served on the electronic communications service provider in the prescribed manner: Provided, that if the court is satisfied that the direction cannot be served in the prescribed manner, the court may make an order allowing service to be effected in the form or manner specified in that order.

(3) (a) The information referred to in subsection (1)(b) must be provided to the court within five ordinary court days from the time that the direction is served on an electronic communications service provider.

(b) An electronic communications service provider on which a direction is served, may in the prescribed manner by means of an affidavit in the prescribed form apply to the court for—

- (i) an extension of the period of five ordinary court days referred to in paragraph (a) for a further period of five ordinary court days on the grounds that the information cannot be provided timeously; or
- (ii) the cancellation of the direction on the grounds that—
 - (aa) it does not provide an electronic communications service to the applicant or the person referred to in section 20(1)(a);
 - (bb) the requested information is not available in the records of the electronic communications service provider; or
 - (cc) its service is not used to host or was or is not used to disclose the data message in question.

(4) After receipt of an application in terms of subsection (3)(b), the court—

- (a) must consider the application;
- (b) may, in the prescribed manner, request such additional evidence by way of affidavit from the electronic communications service provider as it deems fit;
- (c) must give a decision in respect thereof; and
- (d) must inform the electronic communications service provider in the prescribed form and in the prescribed manner of the outcome of the application.

(5) (a) The court may, on receipt of an affidavit from an electronic communications service provider which contains the information referred to in subsection (1)(b), consider the issuing of a protection order in terms of section 20(3) against the person or electronic communications service provider on the date to which the proceedings have been adjourned.

(b) Any information furnished to the court in terms of subsection (1)(b) forms part of the evidence that a court may consider in terms of section 20(3).

(6) The Cabinet member responsible for the administration of justice may, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe reasonable tariffs of compensation payable to electronic communications service providers for providing the information referred to in subsection (1)(b).

(7) Any electronic communications service provider or employee of an electronic communications service provider who—

- (a) fails to furnish the required information within five ordinary court days from the time that the direction is served on such electronic communications service provider to a court in terms of subsection (3)(a) or such extended period allowed by the court in terms of subsection (3)(b); or

 (b) makes a false statement in an affidavit referred to in subsection (1)(b) or (3)(b) in a material respect,
 is guilty of an offence.

(8) For purposes of this section “electronic communications identity number” means a technical identification label that represents the origin or destination of electronic communications traffic.

CLAUSE 22

1. On page 16, from line 49, to omit clause 22, and to substitute:

22. (1) Whenever a person is—

- (a) convicted of an offence in terms of section 14, 15 or 16; or
- (b) acquitted of an offence in terms of section 14, 15 or 16,

but evidence proves that the person engaged in, or attempted to engage in, harassment as contemplated in the Protection from Harassment Act, 2011, the trial court may, after holding an enquiry, issue a protection order contemplated in section 9(4) of the Protection from Harassment Act, 2011, against the person, whereafter the provisions of that Act shall apply with the necessary changes as required by the context.

(2) The trial court which convicts a person of an offence contemplated in section 14, 15 or 16, must order—

- (a) that person to refrain from further making available, disclosing or distributing the data message contemplated in section 14, 15 or 16, which relates to the charge on which that person is convicted;
- (b) that person or any other person to destroy the data message in question, any copy of the data message or any output of the data message and to submit an affidavit in the prescribed form to the prosecutor identified in the order that the data message has been so destroyed; or
- (c) an electronic communications service provider to remove or disable access to the data message in question.

(3) The order referred to in subsection (2)(b), in so far as it relates to a person other than the person who has been convicted of the offence, and (2)(c), must be in the prescribed form and must be served on the electronic communications service provider or person in the prescribed manner: Provided, that if the trial court is satisfied that the order cannot be served in the prescribed form and manner, the court may make an order allowing service to be effected in the form or manner specified in that order.

(4) Any person contemplated in subsection (2)(a) or (b) or electronic communications service provider contemplated in subsection (2)(c) that fails to comply with an order referred to in subsection (2), is guilty of an offence.

(5) An electronic communications service provider that is ordered to remove or disable access to the data message, may, within 14 days after the order has been served on it, in terms of subsection (3), upon notice to the trial court concerned, in the prescribed form and manner, apply to the court for the setting aside or amendment of the order referred to in subsection (2)(c).

(6) (a) The trial court must as soon as is reasonably possible consider an application submitted to it in terms of subsection (5) and may for that purpose, consider such additional evidence as it deems fit, including oral evidence or evidence by affidavit, which must form part of the record of the proceedings.

(b) The trial court may if good cause has been shown for the variation or setting aside of the order, issue an order to this effect.

(7) The court may, for purposes of subsection (6)(a), in the prescribed form and manner cause to be subpoenaed any person as a witness at those proceedings or to provide any book, document or object, if the evidence of that person or book, document or object appears to the court essential to the just decision of the case.

(8) Any person who is subpoenaed in terms of subsection (7) to attend proceedings and who fails to—

- (a) attend or to remain in attendance;
- (b) appear at the place and on the date and at the time to which the proceedings in question may be adjourned;
- (c) remain in attendance at those proceedings as so adjourned; or
- (d) produce any book, document or object specified in the subpoena,

is guilty of an offence.

(9) For purposes of this section “trial court” means—

- (a) a magistrate’s court established under section 2(1)(f)(i) of the Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1944;
- (b) a court for a regional division established under section 2(1)(g)(i) of the Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1944; or
- (c) a High Court referred to in section 6(1) of the Superior Courts Act, 2013.

(10) Whenever a person is convicted of an offence in terms of section 14, 15 or 16, the trial court must issue an order that the person must reimburse all expenses reasonably incurred by—

- (a) a complainant as a result of any direction issued in terms of section 21(1)(b); or
- (b) an electronic communications service provider to remove or disable access to the data message in question, whereupon the provisions of section 300 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, shall apply with the necessary changes required by the context, to such order.

CLAUSE 23

1. On page 17, from line 31, to omit clause 23, and to substitute:

Any person or electronic communications service provider that is convicted of an offence referred in section 20(9) or (10), 21(7) or 22(4) or (8) is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

CLAUSE 24

1. On page 17, from line 38, to omit clause 24 and to substitute:

(1) A court in the Republic has jurisdiction to try any offence referred to in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2, if—

- (a) the accused was arrested in the territory of the Republic on board a vessel, a ship, an off-shore installation, or a fixed platform, or an aircraft registered or required to be registered in the Republic;
- (b) the person to be charged is—
 - (i) a citizen of the Republic or ordinarily resident in the Republic;
 - (ii) a company, incorporated or registered as such under any law, in the Republic; or

- (iii) any body of persons, corporate or unincorporated, in the Republic;
- (c) the offence was committed—
 - (i) in the territory of the Republic; or
 - (ii) on board a vessel, a ship, an off-shore installation, or a fixed platform, on an aircraft registered or required to be registered in the Republic at the time that the offence was committed;
- (d) any act in preparation of the offence or any action necessary to commit the offence or any part of the offence took place—
 - (i) in the territory of the Republic; or
 - (ii) on board a vessel, a ship, an off-shore installation, or a fixed platform, or an aircraft registered or required to be registered in the Republic at the time when the act, action or part of the offence took place;
- (e) the offence affects any person, a restricted computer system contemplated in section 11(1)(b), a public body or any business, in the Republic;
- (f) the offence was committed outside the Republic against—
 - (i) any person who is a citizen of the Republic or ordinarily resident in the Republic;
 - (ii) a restricted computer system contemplated in section 11(1)(b);
 - (iii) a company, incorporated or registered as such under any law, in the Republic;
 - (iv) any body of persons, corporate or unincorporated, in the Republic; or
 - (v) a government facility of the Republic, including an embassy or other diplomatic or consular premises, or any other property of the Republic; or
- (g) the evidence reveals any other basis recognised by law in terms of which the court may assert jurisdiction to try the offence.

(2) Any act alleged to constitute an offence in terms of Part I or Part II of Chapter 2 and which was committed outside the Republic by a person other than a person contemplated in subsection (1), must, regardless of whether or not the act constitutes an offence at the place of its commission, be deemed to have been committed in the Republic if—

- (a) that person is extradited to the Republic; or
- (b) that person—
 - (i) is found to be in the Republic; and
 - (ii) is for one or other reason not extradited by the Republic or if there is no application to extradite the person.

(3) Where a person is charged with attempting, conspiring, aiding, abetting, inducing, inciting, instigating, instructing, commanding or procuring to commit an offence or as an accessory after the offence, the offence is deemed to have been committed not only at the place where the act was committed, but also at every place where the person so acted.

(4) (a) A prosecution of an offence referred to in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2, which was committed outside the Republic—

- (i) may only be instituted against a person with the written permission of the National Director of Public Prosecutions; and
- (ii) must commence before a court designated by the National Director of Public Prosecutions.

(b) The accused must be served with a copy of the written permission and designation and the original thereof must be handed in at the court in which the proceedings are to commence.

(5) The National Commissioner and the National Head of the Directorate, in consultation with the National Director of Public Prosecutions, must issue directives, with which all police officials must comply in the execution of their functions in terms of this Act regarding the investigation of offences that were committed outside the Republic.

CLAUSE 25

1. On page 18, from line 47, to omit the definition of “access”, and to substitute:

CLAUSE 44

1. On page 28, from line 31, to omit clause 44, and to substitute:

Disclosure of data direction and search for, access to and seizure of articles subject to preservation

44. (1) (a) A police official may, where it is expedient, other than by way of a search and seizure in terms of a warrant contemplated in section 29(1), to obtain—

 - (i) data which is subject to preservation in terms of an expedited preservation of data direction or a preservation of evidence direction; or

- (ii) data as contemplated in paragraph (a) of the definition of “article”, which is—
 - (aa) held in a computer system or computer storage medium; or
 - (bb) available to a computer system,
 apply to a magistrate or judge of the High Court for the issuing of a disclosure of data direction.
 - (b) An application referred to in paragraph (a)(i) must—
 - (i) indicate the identity of the police official who applies for the disclosure of data direction;
 - (ii) identify the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution to whom the disclosure of data direction must be addressed;
 - (iii) be accompanied by a copy of the expedited preservation of data direction or preservation of evidence direction or any amendment thereof;
 - (iv) contain a description of the data which must be provided and the format in which it must be provided;
 - (v) specify the grounds for believing that the data is an article as contemplated in paragraph (a) of the definition of “article”; and
 - (vi) comply with any supplementary directives relating to applications for the disclosure of data, which may be issued by the Chief Justice in terms of section 8(3) of the Superior Courts Act, 2013.
 - (c) An application referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) must—
 - (i) indicate the identity of the police official who applies for the disclosure of data direction;
 - (ii) identify the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution to whom the disclosure of data direction must be addressed;
 - (iii) contain a description of the data which must be provided and the format in which it must be provided;
 - (iv) specify the grounds for believing that the data is an article as contemplated in paragraph (a) of the definition of “article”;
 - (v) specify the grounds for believing that the data, in question, is held in a computer system or computer data storage medium or is available to a computer system that is under the control of the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution, referred to in subparagraph (ii), within the area of jurisdiction of the court; and
 - (vi) comply with any supplementary directives relating to applications for the disclosure of data, which may be issued by the Chief Justice in terms of section 8(3) of the Superior Courts Act, 2013.
- (2) A magistrate or judge of the High Court may, subject to section 4(2) of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964, sections 69(2)(b) and 71 of the Tax Administration Act, 2011, and section 21(e) and (f) of the Customs Control Act, 2014, on the written application by a police official referred to in subsection (1), if it appears to the magistrate or judge from information on oath or by way of affirmation, as set out in the application that—
- (a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that—
 - (i) data which is subject to preservation in terms of an expedited preservation of data direction or a preservation of evidence direction, is an article as contemplated in paragraph (a) of the definition of “article”; or
 - (ii) data, which is an article as contemplated in paragraph (a) of the definition of “article”, is—
 - (aa) held in a computer system or computer data storage medium; or
 - (bb) available to a computer system, within their area of jurisdiction; and

(b) it will be in the interests of justice if a disclosure of data direction is issued, issue the disclosure of data direction applied for.

(3) A disclosure of data direction must be in the prescribed form and must be served on the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution affected thereby, in the prescribed manner by a police official.

(4) The disclosure of data direction—

- (a) must direct the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution to provide the data identified in the direction to the extent set out in the direction to an identified police official;
- (b) must specify the format in which the data identified in paragraph (a) must be provided;
- (c) must set out the period within which the data identified in paragraph (a) must be provided; and
- (d) may specify conditions or restrictions relating to the provision of data authorised therein.

(5) A person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution on whom a disclosure of data direction referred to in subsection (3) is served may, in writing in the prescribed form and manner, apply to the magistrate or judge for an amendment or the cancellation of the direction concerned on the ground that they cannot timeously or in a reasonable fashion comply with the direction.

(6) The magistrate or judge to whom an application is made in terms of subsection (5) must, as soon as possible after receipt thereof—

- (a) consider the application and may, for this purpose, order oral or written evidence to be adduced regarding any fact alleged in the application;
- (b) give a decision in respect of the application; and
- (c) if the application is successful, inform the police official and the applicant of the outcome of the application.

(7) Any data made available in terms of a disclosure of data direction, must be—

- (a) provided to the police official identified in the direction; and
- (b) accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form by the person or authorised representative of an electronic communications service provider or financial institution, verifying the authenticity, integrity and reliability of the data that is furnished.

(8) A person, electronic communications service provider or a financial institution who—

- (a) fails to comply with a disclosure of data direction;
- (b) makes a false statement in an application referred to in subsection (5); or
- (c) fails to comply with subsection (7), is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(9) (a) Any article subject to a preservation of evidence direction that is not “data” must be seized in terms of a warrant referred to in section 29(1).

(b) A police official may, at any time, apply for a search warrant in terms of section 29(1) to search for, access or seize an article (which includes “data”) that is or was subject to an expedited preservation of data direction or a preservation of evidence direction.

CLAUSE 45

(4)(a) The National Director of Public Prosecutions must submit the request for assistance, together with their recommendations, to the Cabinet member responsible for the administration of justice, for the Cabinet member’s approval.

(b) Upon being notified of the Cabinet member’s approval the National Director of Public Prosecutions must forward the request contemplated in subsection (1) to the designated judge for consideration.

(5) Where the request relates to the expedited disclosure of traffic data, subsections (3)(a)(iv) and (4) do not apply, and the National Director of Public Prosecutions must submit the request for assistance, together with their recommendations, to the designated judge.

(6) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), the designated judge may on receipt of a request referred to in subsection (4) or (5), issue any order which they deem appropriate to ensure that the requested—

- (a) data or other article is preserved in accordance with section 42;
 - (b) data or other article is seized on an expedited basis in accordance with section 29 and preserved;
 - (c) traffic data is disclosed on an expedited basis in terms of a disclosure of data direction in accordance with section 44;
 - (d) real-time communication-related information or archived communication-related information, is obtained and preserved; or
 - (e) indirect communications are intercepted and preserved,
- as is specified in the request.

(7) The designated judge may only issue an order contemplated in subsection (6), if—

- (a) on the facts alleged in the request, there are reasonable grounds to believe that—
 - (i) an offence substantially similar to the offences contemplated in Part I or Part II of Chapter 2 has been, is being, or will probably be committed; or
 - (ii) any other offence substantially similar to an offence recognised in the Republic, has been, is being, or will probably be committed by means of, or facilitated through the use of an article; and
 - (iii) for purposes of the investigation it is necessary, in the interests of justice, to give an order contemplated in subsection (6);
- (b) the request clearly identifies—
 - (i) the person, electronic communications service provider or financial institution—

- (aa) who or which will receive, is in possession of, or is in control of, the data or other article that must be preserved; or
- (bb) from whose facilities the data, real-time communication-related information, archived communication-related information, indirect communications or traffic data must be obtained or intercepted;
- (ii) the data or other article which must be preserved;
- (iii) the data or other article which must be seized on an expedited basis and be preserved;
- (iv) the traffic data which must be disclosed on an expedited basis;
- (v) the real-time communication-related information or archived communication-related information, which is to be obtained; or
- (vi) the indirect communications, which are to be intercepted;
- (c) the request is, where applicable, in accordance with—
 - (i) any treaty, convention or other agreement to which that foreign State and the Republic are parties or which can be used as a basis for mutual assistance; or
 - (ii) any agreement with any foreign State entered into in terms of section 57; and
- (d) the order contemplated in subsection (6) is in accordance with any applicable law of the Republic.
- (8) The designated judge may, where a request relates to the expedited disclosure of traffic data—
 - (a) specify conditions or restrictions relating to the disclosure of traffic data as they deem appropriate; or
 - (b) refuse to issue an order referred to in subsection (6)(c), if the disclosure of the traffic data may prejudice the sovereignty, security, public safety, or other essential interests of the Republic.

3. On page 32, from line 40, to omit sub-clause (10)(a), and to substitute:
