

INTERPRETATION NOTE NO: 68 (Issue 2)

DATE: 7 February 2013

ACT : TAX ADMINISTRATION ACT NO. 28 OF 2011 (the Act)
SECTION : CHAPTER 12 AND SCHEDULE 1
SUBJECT : PROVISIONS OF THE TAX ADMINISTRATION ACT THAT DID NOT COMMENCE ON 1 OCTOBER 2012 UNDER PROCLAMATION NO. 51 IN GOVERNMENT GAZETTE 35687

Preamble

In this Note unless the context indicates otherwise –

- “section” means a section of the Act;
- “the Proclamation” means Proclamation No. 51 of 14 September 2012 published in Government Gazette No. 35687; and
- any word or expression bears the meaning ascribed to it in the Act.

1. Purpose

On 1 October 2012 the Act came into operation except for certain provisions relating to interest. This Note provides guidance on the identification of those interest provisions which have not come into operation.

Issue 1 of this Note omitted to include sections 64B(9) and 64K(6) of the Income Tax Act No. 58 of 1962 in Annexure B. This oversight has been corrected in this issue.

2. Background

Under section 272 the President must by proclamation in the Gazette determine the date on which the Act comes into operation and may determine different effective dates for different provisions.

The proclamation (Annexure A) was published on 14 September 2012 and provides that the Act shall come into operation on 1 October 2012 except for –

- sections 187(2), (3)(a) to (e) and (4), 188(2) and (3) and 189(2) and (5); and
- a provision of Schedule 1 to the Act that amends or repeals a provision of a tax Act relating to interest under that tax Act, to the extent of that amendment or repeal.

The Act introduces a new regime for purposes of the accrual of interest on tax debts or refunds owed by SARS. Most of the interest provisions are contained in Chapter 12 which comprises –

- section 187 – General interest rules;
- section 188 – Period over which interest accrues; and
- section 189 – Rate at which interest is charged.

Schedule 1 of the Act sets out the provisions of various Acts administered by SARS that have been or will be amended by the Act. The Acts affected and the paragraphs of Schedule 1 that apply include the Transfer Duty Act, 1949 (paragraphs 1 to 11), Estate Duty Act, 1955 (paragraphs 12 to 22), Income Tax Act, 1962 (paragraphs 23 to 107), Value-Added Tax Act, 1991 (paragraphs 108 to 146), South African Revenue Service Act, 1997 (paragraph 147), Skills Development Levies Act, 1999 (paragraphs 148 to 156), Unemployment Insurance Contributions Act, 2002 (paragraphs 157 to 166), Diamond Export Levy (Administration) Act, 2007 (paragraphs 167 to 171), Securities Transfer Tax Administration Act, 2007 (paragraphs 172 to 179), Mineral and Petroleum Resources Royalty (Administration) Act, 2008 (paragraphs 183 to 192) and a number of amending Acts.

The new interest regime necessitated substantial changes to SARS's existing systems which were not finalised by 1 October 2012. As a result, most of the provisions of Chapter 12 of the Act that relate to the accrual of interest on tax debts or refunds, did not commence on that date. Consequently, until the commencement of the provisions contained in Chapter 12, the provisions of Schedule 1 to the Act that repeal, delete or amend the interest provisions of the other tax Acts regulating the accrual and calculation of interest, will not commence and these provisions of the other tax Acts remain in force.

3. The law

The provisions of the Act that relate to the accrual of interest on tax debts or refunds that did not commence are contained in Chapter 12 and Schedule 1 to the Act. The table in Annexure B sets out a description of the provisions of Schedule 1 to the Act that have not commenced or have commenced except to the extent that they relate to interest.

4. Application of the law

4.1 Provisions of the Act relating to the accrual of interest that commenced on 1 October 2012

The new interest regime under the Act commenced in respect of –

- interest on an understatement penalty imposed under Chapter 16 and not paid by the effective date of the tax that is understated; and
- interest on a tax debt resulting from a jeopardy assessment issued under section 94 and not paid by the date for payment specified in the jeopardy assessment.

The interest provisions of the Act relating to understatement penalties and jeopardy assessments commenced on 1 October 2012 because they are not regulated under any of the other tax Acts.

For purposes of the accrual and calculation of interest on the outstanding amount of a tax debt or refund in respect of understatement penalties or a jeopardy assessment, the following provisions of the Act apply:

- Charging of interest: under section 187(1), if the tax debt is not paid in full by the effective date, interest accrues on the amount of the outstanding balance of the tax debt at the rate provided under section 189, and for the period provided under section 188.

- Effective date: The effective date for purposes of the calculation of interest in relation to –
  - an understatement penalty, is the date by which tax for the tax period should have been paid [see section 187(2)(e)].
  - a jeopardy assessment, is the date for payment specified in the jeopardy assessment [see section 187(5)].
- Period over which interest accrues: Interest is charged for the period from the effective date to the date the tax is paid [see section 188(1)].
- Rate at which interest is charged: The rate at which interest is payable under section 187 is the prescribed rate, which is the interest rate that the Minister may from time to time fix by Notice in the Government Gazette under section 80(1)(b) of the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 [see section 189(1), (3) and (4)].
- Remittal of interest: A taxpayer may request a senior SARS official to direct that so much of the interest as is attributable to prescribed circumstances beyond the taxpayer's control, is not payable by the taxpayer. These circumstances are limited to a natural or human-made disaster, a civil disturbance or disruption in services; or a serious illness or accident [see section 187(6) read with 187(7)]. As section 187(6) refers to interest imposed under section 187(1), the remittal only applies to interest payable on a tax debt in respect of understatement penalties or a jeopardy assessment as set out above.

Section 187(1) also regulates the accrual of interest on refunds payable by SARS. However, because section 188(3) did not come into operation such interest will only accrue once section 188(3) comes into operation.

4.2 Provisions of the Act relating to the accrual of interest that did not commence

4.2.1 Provisions of Chapter 12

Sections 187(2), (3)(a) to (e) and (4), 188(2) and (3) and 189(2) and (5) did not commence on 1 October 2012. These provisions relate to the accrual of interest on tax debts and refunds in respect of tax types for purposes of which the accrual of interest is regulated under the other tax Acts.

4.2.2 Provisions of Schedule 1 to the Act

For purposes of the new regime for the accrual of interest under Chapter 12, most of the interest accrual provisions contained in the tax Acts would have been repealed upon commencement of Schedule 1 to the Act.

As some of the provisions of Chapter 12 regulating the accrual of interest have not commenced, the provisions of the other tax Acts regulating the accrual of interest remain in force until the President determines by proclamation when the relevant provisions of Schedule 1 come into operation.

Because the definition of the term “tax” in section 1 includes “interest ...under a tax Act”, the other provisions of the Act are applicable in respect of interest that will still accrue under the tax Acts on tax debts and refunds (when applicable), for example:

- Information gathering under Chapter 5;
- Confidentiality under Chapter 6;
- Advance rulings under Chapter 7;
- Assessment under Chapter 8;
- Dispute resolution under Chapter 9;
- Liability and payment under Chapter 10;
- Recovery under Chapter 11;
- Write-off or compromise under Chapter 14; and
- Sanctions under Chapters 15, 16 and 17.

The table in Annexure B sets out the provisions of the Schedule to the Act that have not commenced or have commenced except to the extent that they relate to interest.
