MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE SPECIAL ECONOMIC ZONES BILL, 2013

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 The Industrial Development Zones Programme was gazetted in 2000 as an incentive programme under the Manufacturing Development Act, 1993 (Act No. 187 of 1993), so as to establish industrial development zones, a type of special economic zone providing special provisions to develop industrial growth in particular geographical areas.
- 1.2 The Department of Trade and Industry (“the Department”) is of the view that the Industrial Development Zones (IDZ) Programme has performed below expectation. In 2006, the Department commenced a policy review process to review the challenges experienced by the IDZ Programme. This review process identified the following factors as key contributors to the shortcomings of the IDZ Programme: a weak policy and legislative framework; poor institutional and governance arrangements; ad hoc funding arrangements that render long term planning in the IDZ impossible, lack of IDZ specific incentives; lack of targeted investment promotion, lack of programme definition and strategic direction and poor coordination and integration.
- 1.3 South African policies for economic growth and development recognise that responding to challenging global and domestic economic conditions demands a sharper focus on new sources of competitiveness which will be achieved through innovation and productivity, with an entrenched base in skills, infrastructure and efficient and responsive state action.
- 1.4 Measures must be implemented to enhance domestic and regional demand and to extend export promotion strategically while at the same time strengthening the South African industrial base and promoting a labour-absorbing industrialisation path.
- 1.5 The Department has identified Special Economic Zones as a mechanism that can contribute towards the realisation of these economic growth and development goals. The Bill seeks to address some of the deficiencies of the IDZ Programme by creating a legislative framework to regulate the designation and operation of Special Economic Zones.
