

Sign up now to receive your FREE Criminal Justice Review

Register now at www.jutalaw.co.za to receive future email editions of the Criminal Justice Review!

A bi-annual update complementing the Commentary on the Criminal Procedure Act

A Paizes, S van der Merwe

The Criminal Justice Review

- Provides expert input on the latest criminal justice developments
- Keeps subscribers up to date between revision services
- Includes concise commentary on substantive criminal law and criminal procedure, cases and legislation and detailed feature articles

Register to receive future email editions of this free service.

Create a user profile on the Juta Law website www.jutalaw.co.za and register for this newsletter under the 'Newsletters' option. Juta Law customers with an existing website profile (which include Jutastat Online subscribers) can simply add the Criminal Justice Review newsletter to their existing profile.

Also available online!

Past and current editions of the Review are accessible online at www.jutalaw.co.za under the Newsletters section.

Get the most out of your 'very large legal book' with the Criminal Justice Review free e-mail service

Commentary on the Criminal Procedure Act is the leading authored commentary on criminal procedure in South Africa. Published for over 25 years and updated twice yearly, Commentary has recently achieved TV celebrity status as the 'very large legal book' regularly consulted during the Oscar Pistorius trial.

Why register for the Criminal Justice Review?

Since 2013, the Commentary authors have been keeping subscribers up-to-date on developments between revision services by means of a FREE bi-annual email/online supplement, the Criminal Justice Review. The Review comments on both substantive criminal law and criminal procedure, cases and legislation in succinct summaries and a number of detailed feature articles.

The recent litigation around the question of a mandatory interdict to prosecute illustrates the synergy between the publications: While Commentary Revision Service 51 deals with the North Gauteng High Court decision Freedom Under Law v National Director of Public Prosecutions & others from September 2013, the Criminal Justice Review provides the seamless update in analysing the Supreme Court of Appeal decision since handed down in April 2014.

Subscribing to the free Criminal Justice Review means you never need to be without expert input on the latest criminal justice developments.

Contents – Criminal Justice Review (No. 1 of 2014)

FEATURE ARTICLES

- The constitutional validity of s 2(2) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998
- Sexual offences: Corroboration, self-corroboration and the probative value of the victim's report
- Is an admission by a co-accused admissible against an accused?
- Dolus eventualis again

LEGISLATION

- The Criminal Law (Forensic Procedures) Amendment Act 37 of 2013

CASE LAW

- Criminal Law
 - The principle of legality: Statutory offences in Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998 (POCA) challenged: Validity of provisions of POCA considered
 - Common purpose: Active association – requirements
 - Dissociation from a common purpose
 - Conspiracy – agreement as to means of carrying out enterprise not necessary – timing of violence for robbery
- Criminal Procedure and Evidence: Pre-sentence
 - Chapter 1: Review of prosecuting authority's decision to withdraw charges, and the validity of a mandatory interdict to prosecute
 - s 73: Legal representation and the presumption of regularity
 - s 112: Irregularity where prosecutor explained rights to an undefended accused
 - s 113(2): Consequences of a court's correction of a plea of guilty to a competent verdict accepted by the prosecutor
 - s 153: Televised criminal proceedings and the trial of Oscar Pistorius
 - s 166: Duties of a prosecutor when irregularities arise that undermine the fairness of a trial
 - s 201: Legal professional privilege – does it apply to the invoices of attorneys?
 - s 225: Prosecution's failure to obtain DNA evidence and to procure evidence of examining doctor in rape case
 - s 252A: Traps
- Sentencing
 - s 50(2)(a) of the Criminal Law (Sexual Offences and Related Matters) Amendment Act 32 of 2007: Children and the constitutional invalidity of the National Register for Sex Offenders
 - Sentencing and consideration of the period in detention prior to sentencing

Sign up now! Refer overleaf for details on how to register for email editions of the Criminal Justice Review.