2. Relevant tax laws

This is a binding private ruling issued in accordance with section 78(1) and published in accordance with section 87(2) of the Tax Administration Act 28 of 2011.

In this ruling references to sections and articles are to sections of the Act and articles of the SA/Sweden treaty and the Protocol applicable as at 7 December 2016. Unless the context indicates otherwise any word or expression in this ruling bears the meaning ascribed to it in the Act or the Protocol.

This is a ruling on the interpretation and application of –

- sections 64G(3) and 108;
- article 10 of the SA/Sweden tax treaty published in Government Gazette (GG) 16890 dated 27 December 1995 as amended by articles I and II of the Protocol published in GG 35268 dated 23 April 2012; and
- article 10 paragraph 1 of the SA/Kuwait tax treaty published in GG 29815 dated 20 April 2007.

3. Parties to the proposed transaction

The Applicant: A private company incorporated in and a resident of South Africa that is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Company A

Company A: A company incorporated in and a resident of Sweden

4. Description of the proposed transaction

Company A is the beneficial owner of the shares in the Applicant and of any dividends that may accrue in respect of those shares. The Applicant proposes to pay a dividend to Company A.

Article II of the Protocol lays down that –

“[i]f any agreement or convention between South Africa and a third state provides that South Africa shall exempt from tax dividends ... arising in South Africa, or limit the tax charged in South Africa on such dividends ... to a rate lower than ... [5%], such exemption or lower rate shall automatically apply to dividends ... arising in South Africa and beneficially owned by a resident of Sweden”.

In this regard, the SA/Kuwait tax treaty provides in article 10 paragraph 1 that should dividends be paid by a company that is a resident of South Africa to a resident of Kuwait who is the beneficial owner, those dividends would be taxable in Kuwait only.

5. Conditions and assumptions

This binding private ruling is not subject to any additional conditions and assumptions.

6. Ruling

- The Applicant will not be required to withhold dividends tax from the dividend payments to Company A if Company A complies with the documentary requirements in section 64G(3).
