MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE BANKS AMENDMENT BILL

1. INTRODUCTION

The Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990) (“Banks Act”), amongst other things, imposes certain requirements which an institution must comply with before it may carry on the business of a bank or in the lawful carrying on, of the business of a bank. In terms of the Banks Act, no person may conduct the business of a bank unless such person is a public company and is registered as a bank in terms of the Banks Act. A public company is defined in the Companies Act, 2008 (Act No. 71 of 2008) (“Companies Act”), as a profit company that is not a state-owned company, a private company or a personal liability company. Further in the Companies Act a state-owned company is defined as an enterprise that is registered in terms of that Act as a company, and either is listed as a public entity in Schedule 2 or 3 of the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999) (“PFMA”), or is owned by a municipality, as contemplated in the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 2000 (Act No. 32 of 2000), and is otherwise similar to an enterprise listed in the PFMA.

The requirements imposed by the Banks Act before a person may conduct the business of a bank, and register as such, makes it impossible for a state-owned company registered in terms of the Companies Act to conduct the business of a bank.

2. OBJECTS OF THE BILL

The Bill amends the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990), to enable state-owned companies to register and conduct the business of a bank in terms of the Banks Act. The Bill seeks to allow state-owned companies to register a memorandum of incorporation with the Commissioner appointed in terms of the Companies Act. The Bill further seeks to enable state-owned companies to exercise control over a bank and to allow state-owned companies to be eligible to apply for registration as a controlling company.

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR THE STATE

None.

5. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- 5.1 The Member proposes that the Bill be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provisions to which the procedures set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution apply.
