South Africa's most comprehensive research tool for Pharmacy and Health Products Regulation.

Pharmapedia is a ground-breaking online solution to medicines and pharmacy regulatory compliance developed for those who negotiate a complex array of health products and health professions legislation, guidelines, regulations, rules and policies.

Pharmapedia integrates the vast and complex array of health products and health professions legislation, together with guidelines, regulations, rules and policies from the South African Health Products Regulatory Authority (SAHPRA), South African Pharmacy Council (SAPC) and the South African Health Professions Council (SAHPC) into an all-in-one practical regulatory toolkit.

In addition, subscribers receive a free Pharmacists' Compulsory Legislation Handbook containing the legislation that pharmacists need to comply with the legal requirements of the South African Pharmacy Council (SAPC).

Pharmapedia and the complimentary Pharmacists' Compulsory Legislation Handbook meet the SAPC legal requirements as stipulated in the Good Pharmacy Practice (GPP):

HOW WILL IT HELP YOU?

Pharmapedia covers all aspects of the control of registration, manufacture, distribution, storage and dispensing of medicines, medical devices, in-vitro diagnostic products and scheduled substances, as well as provisions for licensing and conducting pharmacies, dispensing facilities and pharmaceutical companies.

It collates the Pharmacy Council, Health Professions Council, Medicines Control Council and other guidelines, intuitively cross-referenced under subject headings, processes and themes for ease of use.

In addition to the regulatory information, Pharmapedia includes Val Beaumont's useful Practice Notes and Quick Guides which consolidate the guidelines and clarify the implementation of legislation and compliance requirements. These range from manufacturing and promotion to advertising, generic substitution, wholesale, distribution, prescribing and dispensing and pharmacy best practices.

Detailed indexing and extensive cross-referencing takes Pharmapedia from a compulsory text book to an empowering compliance solution.
