About this Publication:

Together the Annual Survey and the Juta's Quarterly Review (JQR) offer an exhaustive overview and analysis of legal developments by renowned legal experts and commentators in their fields. It also provides an excellent resource for identifying and interpreting relevant statutes and case law. While the Annual Survey offers a consolidated view of legal developments in a given year, JQR provides an immediate survey of current legal developments, often referring to cases as yet unreported. South African Law Report and South African Criminal Law Report citations are hyperlinked to the headnotes and flynotes of the cases. This work is your ideal companion for fast effective access to the information you need in your legal research.

Contents Include:

1. Annual Survey of South African Law (2000 - current)

Historical depth is added to the database by this electronic version of the Annual Survey, published by Juta in printed form, in association with the Wits Law School, since 1947. The editions of this well-respected print publication from 2000 to current are included in the Review.

Subjects covered are similar to those in the JQR and authored by renowned legal experts and commentators in their fields.

2. Juta's Quarterly Review of South African Law (2006 to date)

This is the first comprehensive and authoritative legal commentary in South Africa published only in electronic format, to speed up delivery to subscribers, and provide electronic search facilities and hypertext linking. This component of the database is published in quarterly instalments and will continue to grow, providing a permanent record of the country's developing law.

Subjects covered include: Administrative law • Children • Civil Procedure • Companies and Close Corporations • Constitutional law • Constitutional Property law • Contract law • Criminal law • Criminal Procedure • Delict •

3. Headnotes and flynotes
