About this Publication:

The company today operates in an ever changing environment. There is a plethora of new legislation impacting on companies in South Africa, as well as new corporate reporting requirements and increasing stakeholder expectations. In the broader context, companies operate in the 'new economy' where more must be made with less and where governance, strategy and sustainability are inseparable. Today's business leaders must indeed steer their ships well.

The Corporate Report offers business leaders topical, relevant articles written by experts in their fields. It aims to assist business and governance leaders make more informed decisions about corporate and governance issues, business judgement calls, and corporate reporting. It also sets out to provide information that is relevant for today's company operating in a new economy created by the crises of global finance, climate change and ecological overshoot.

Available online, incorporating issues from 2011 to date, and as a print subscription (3 issues per annum). Print back-issues are available on request.
