This major loose-leaf work records and expounds on the important statutory offences in our law. Contents are kept up to date with regular revision services. This work has for many years been the acknowledged authority on statutory offences in South Africa. It is unique in offering a comprehensive and detailed discussion of specific statutory offences, based on the authors' original research. To take cognisance of the continuous creation of new and amendment of existing statutes by Parliament, and the offences created thereby, the work is updated and expanded annually. At present, it includes a consideration, under more than 50 subject categories, of approximately 140 different Acts of Parliament.
