

South African Criminal Law and Procedure Volume II: Common-law Crimes

Edition:	3rd Edition
Publication date:	1996
Author/Editors:	Milton, JRL
ISBN:	9780702137730
Format:	Hard Cover
Number of Pages:	935 Pages
Retail price:	R1,083.00 (incl. VAT, excl. delivery.)
Website Link:	juta.co.za/pdf/22691/

About this Publication:

This volume, dealing with common-law crimes, takes cognisance of the constitutional context in which South African criminal law now operates and the emerging culture of human rights and freedoms which has begun to generate a significant shift in perceptions of the boni mores of a new South African society. Each chapter begins with an introductory section: "Definition and Place in South African Criminal Law". This contains the formal definition of the crime and thereafter a consideration of the social context of the crime and a critical assessment of the purpose which it serves in modern society. The second section of each chapter provides a history of the crime. The third and fourth sections deal with "Essential Elements" and "Procedural Aspects".

Contents Include:

- Crimes against the State and community in general:
 - Crimes against the State
 - Crimes against public order
 - Crimes against the administration of justice
 - Crimes against public administration
 - Crimes against the morality of the community
 - Crimes against religion
 - Crimes against the person
 - Crimes against potential human life
 - Crimes against human life
 - Crimes against bodily security
 - Crimes against personality
 - Crimes against personal freedom
 - Crimes against parental authority

- Fraud and kindred crimes
- Damage to property
- Intrusion upon property

Of Interest and Benefit to:

- Legal practitioners
- Academics
- Students
- Researchers
- This volume has retained statutory offences only if they directly supplement or mirror the common law crime
- Crimes are given a new historical context
- Crimes are discussed and contextualised within contemporary social South Africa