

Arts and Culture

Edition:Publication date: January 2016Author/Editors: L Beekman, C Dube, H Potgieter & J UnderhillISBN: 9780702189890eISBN: 9780702189890Format: Soft CoverExtent:*Retail price: R342.00 (incl. VAT, excl. delivery.) eBook R205Website Link: Academic Literacy 2eAbout this Publication:

The content in Arts and Culture Student helps develop the skills and knowledge of various art forms such as visual arts, music, drama, dance, media or heritage promotion and conservation; creates art skills and cultural expression to make an economic contribution to self and society.

The Arts and Culture Student Book is developed according to a Unit Standard-based curriculum that is in line with the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) for level 1.

Contents Include:

This book is arranged in six chapters:

- Chapter 1: Engaging with art to understand others and ourselves
- Chapter 2: Using and developing your creative side
- Chapter 3: Making art work
- Chapter 4: Traditional culture, popular culture and the mass media
- Chapter 5: Art as a development and healing process
- Chapter 6: Living our cultures

Of Interest and Benefit to:

It offers helpful features and benefits, including:

- Easy-to-read content that will help students of all language backgrounds understand the content
- Relevant and interactive activities to enhance students understanding of the content
- Curriculum requirements (i.e. Unit Standards – USs, Specific Outcomes – SOs, and Assessment Criteria – ACs and Unit Standard credits) are explained in the introduction and throughout the content
- Important words and ideas are highlighted and explained throughout the book
- Many illustrations, diagrams and photographs have been included to support the text and develop concepts
- Do this now! and Something to know features have been added to increase students' learning experience, skills and information

- Glossary at the end of the book explains the meaning of important words that have been used.
-