About this Publication:

Complete your thesis or dissertation successfully: Practical guidelines provides fundamentally important information to students of the social sciences completing their master's or doctoral studies, as well as to their supervisors and study leaders. Eminent scholars have contributed to the book and have created a text that is easy to read and use, yet does not water down the conceptual and terminological complexities of the process. For the very first time, the most recent and current perspectives on how to complete master's or doctoral studies have been brought together in one publication that will equip relatively inexperienced researchers to write a thesis or dissertation.

Current, practical, South African, up-to-date and cross-disciplinary, the book includes numerous examples of best practice, and provides research sites to consult and includes a chapter on article writing.

Contents Include:

- Chapter 1: The quality of doctoral education in South Africa: A question of significance
- Chapter 2: Planning your thesis: Systemic and personal issues
- Chapter 3: Choosing a topic
- Chapter 4: Writing a research proposal
- Chapter 5: Theoretical-conceptual and structural aspects of thesis writing
- Chapter 6: Basic issues in thesis writing
- Chapter 7: Sampling and research paradigms
- Chapter 8: Research designs and data collection techniques
- Chapter 9: Conducting qualitative research: Practical guidelines on fieldwork
- Chapter 10: Writing the quantitative research method chapter
- Chapter 12: Ensuring quality in scholarly writing
- Chapter 13: Linking purpose and ethics in thesis writing: South African illustrations of an
- international perspective
- Chapter 14: Writing style
- Chapter 15: Communication between student and supervisor
- Chapter 17: Examining a thesis and writing an examiner's report
- Chapter 18: Choosing examiners for a thesis or dissertation
- Chapter 19: How to prepare for an oral doctoral examination
- Chapter 20: The ultimate aim of your studies: Getting a manuscript published
- Chapter 21: Electronic submissions to journals
