About this Publication:

A Guide to Bail Applications introduces the lawyer to the practical side of the bail application. This book describes the effect of bail and explains the procedures and steps in a successful bail application. A Guide to Bail Applications contains all the relevant forms for the bail application at the back of the book. Useful discussions of relevant cases are included throughout the book as case studies.

The Legal-Ease series makes the law easier to understand without losing the context in which it operates. Legal Essence books shed light, in a practical way, on the legal issues that candidate attorneys and legal practitioners encounter in practice. The books set out clear frameworks and contain practical tips and helpful hints. Written by experts, these books equip the reader with knowledge that can be applied in practice.
