

Ethics in Healthcare

Edition: Publication date: Author/Editors: ISBN: Format: Number of Pages: Retail price: delivery.) Website Link:

4th Edition 2018 van der Wal, D 9781485124719 Soft Cover 480 R562.00 (incl. VAT, excl.

juta.co.za/pdf/24740/

About this Publication:

Now in its fourth edition, Ethics in Healthcare 4e approaches the topic of ethics from the perspective of the nurse and offers a viewpoint on the many ethical questions he or she has to deal with every day. This established and accessible text takes a fresh look at the question of cultural diversity and explains why the profession of nursing has to adhere to a common value system.

Main Updates In This Edition

The chapter on legal liability has been rewritten to form a central reference point of the text. The chapter on the teaching of ethics and the ethics of teaching, in addition to exploring the question of the moral development of the student, has been revised to illuminate the manner and matter of nursing and healthcare education.

Key Features

- Perspectives on healthcare ethics
- Perspectives on ethical theory, principles and decision-making in healthcare
- Perspectives on rights and relationships in healthcare practice
- Perspectives on transcultural issues in healthcare practice
- Perspectives on ethical issues in healthcare practice

Contents Include:

Part 1: Perspectives on healthcare ethics Chapter 1: The moral and ethical foundation of nursing Chapter 2: The caring ethic in nursing Part 2: Perspectives on ethical theory, principles and decision-making in healthcare Chapter 3: Ethical theory and decision-making in healthcare Chapter 4: Ethical principles and rules in moral decision-making and professional-patient relationships Part 3: Perspectives on rights and relationships in healthcare practice Chapter 5: Human rights and legal liability in nursing practice Chapter 6: Ethical concerns in relationships between nurses, patients, family members and members of the healthcare team Chapter 7: Ethical concerns in relationships between nurses, their employing authorities and trade unions Chapter 8: The rights of patients and nurses in healthcare Part 4: Perspectives on transcultural issues in healthcare practice Chapter 9: Dealing with cultural differences Chapter 10: Religious and cultural forces in transcultural nursing Part 5: Perspectives on ethical issues in healthcare practice Chapter 11: Nursing and healthcare issues from the beginning of life to adolescence Chapter 12: Nursing and healthcare issues from the beginning of adulthood to the end of life Chapter 13: Ethical perspectives in caring for HIV/Aids patients Chapter 14: Management ethics Chapter 15: The teaching of ethics and the ethics of teaching Chapter 16: Ethics in research

Of Interest and Benefit to:

Nursing student, practising nurse, all healthcare professionals.