About this Publication:

Juta's Education Law and Policy Handbook is the key to understanding the Acts, regulations and policies affecting school governance as well as educators' conditions of employment throughout South Africa. The full text of these nationally applicable laws is reproduced, with explanatory notes by specialist authors.

Key Benefits:

- The authors are renowned experts in the area of education law
- The work is published in loose-leaf format (with a supplementary CD-ROM with curriculum related material), enabling the contents to be updated by means of replacement pages to reflect changes and additions to the legislation.
