About this Publication:

About this Publication

Juta's Income Tax is unique in its approach and consists of four volumes. The publication provides section-by-section commentary on the Income Tax Act, 1962, combined with concise overviews and comprehensive cross-referencing to case law and other sources. The use of graphic aids, such as flowcharts and diagrams, and extensive examples, make the text accessible and easy to understand to the specialist as well as the occasional user.

Key Benefits
