The Stellenbosch Law Review is a forum for the discussion of topical legal issues in various fields. As a law review the emphasis is on providing insight rather than just an overview. It maintains a balance between a wide variety of specialist fields and legal subjects of general interest.

Also available as part of Juta's Electronic Law Journals 2000 to date on CD-ROM and the Internet.

Contents Include:

- Full-length articles, review articles, case-notes and comments, as well as shorter book reviews and announcements

Of Interest and Benefit to:

- Legal practitioners
- Academics and researchers
