

Constitutional Library, Juta's (CD-ROM)

Edition:
Publication date: January 2016
Author/Editors: L Beekman, C Dube, H Potgieter & J Underhill
ISBN: 10242546
eISBN: 10242546
Format: CD-ROM
Extent:
Retail price: R8,170.00 (incl. VAT, excl. delivery.) eBook R205
Website Link: Academic Literacy 2e

About this Publication:

Juta's Constitutional Library contains a comprehensive collection of materials pertaining to constitutional and human rights law. It contains the full text of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa Act as well as all South African Constitutional cases. This electronic library also includes the legal periodical, the South African Journal on Human Rights (1985 - 2015) and the African Human Rights Law Journal (2001 - 2017), containing articles on constitutional matters, human rights issues and comments on cases, book reviews and general articles on human rights issues. The African Human Rights Law Reports (2000 - 2004), edited by the Centre for Human Rights at the University of Pretoria are also included in the library.

Key Benefits

- Fully searchable
- Table of Cases
- Electronic links from Table of Cases to relevant case law
- The ability to cut and paste extracts into working documents

Contents Include:

- The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa Act 108 of 1996
- Schedules and amendments to the Act
- Related Acts
- South African Constitutional Court cases
- Other relevant cases
 - The South African Journal of Human Rights (1985 to 2015)
 - The African Human Rights Law Journal (2001 to 2017)
 - African Human Rights Law Reports (2000 to 2004)

Of Interest and Benefit to:

- Legal practitioners

- Judges
- Magistrates
- Prosecutors
- Those concerned with human rights and justice in South Africa
- Law libraries
- Academics