About this Publication:

The Administrative Adjudication of Road Traffic Offences (AARTO) Act, effective 1 July 2021, will impact all South African motorists and ordinary businesses. Companies must understand their responsibilities under AARTO, its implications on employers and employees, and the steps required to mitigate potential liability resulting from infringements.

This set of three A1-sized gloss encapsulated posters is ideal for display at the workplace to educate your fleet and employees about the impact of AARTO, how they can avoid infringement, and how infringement might impact their employer and their job.

Contents Include:
