About this Publication:

Fundamina: A Journal of Legal History is a peer-refereed subscription-based online journal (updated bi-annually) that publishes legal historical research. In this journal, academics and practitioners from South Africa and abroad have the opportunity to exchange ideas on a wide range of legal-historical issues.

The focus is on the ancient and modern, external and internal legal history of all families of law and is not limited to South or southern African legal history.

Contents Include:
